Web Fundamentals Timetable Website: Assessment Rubric

Name: ....   Class: ....   Result: /40

Criteria	Ratings						Marks
Paper Prototype	14 marks The prototype included every page of the website: it was evident how a user would navigate between each page; many design considerations were noted & thorough detail was provided.	12 marks The prototype included 6 pages of the website: it was evident how a user would navigate between each page; most design considerations were noted & detail was provided.	10 marks The prototype included 5 pages of the website: it was evident how a user would navigate between each page; some design considerations were noted & detail was provided.	8 marks The prototype included 4 pages of the website: it was evident how a user would navigate between each page; some design considerations were noted & detail was provided.	6-4 marks The prototype only included 3 pages & detail was lacking. The prototype only included 2 pages & detail was lacking.	2-0 marks The prototype only included a single page. The prototype was not submitted.
User Story	5 marks The website completely meets the user story brief & allows a student to quickly identify their classes for a particular day; is clear & easy to read when viewed on a mobile device.	4 marks The website meets most of the user story brief & allows a student to identify their classes for a particular day; is easy to read when viewed on a mobile device.	3 marks The website meets the part of the user story brief & allows a student to identify their classes for a particular day; it can be read when viewed on a mobile device.	2 marks The website meets the part of the user story brief & allows a student to identify their classes for a particular day; it is hard to use the website when on a mobile device.	1 marks It is difficult for a user to find their schedule for a particular day, or it is hard to use the website when on a mobile device.	0 marks The full timetable cannot be viewed on the website.
HTML `<title>`, `<h1>`, `<h2>`, ``, `<img>`, and ``	8 marks The website uses all 6 HTML elements specified & includes additional HTML tags researched by the student	6 marks The website uses all 6 HTML elements specified	4 marks The website uses between 4 & 5 of the HTML elements specified	2 marks The website uses between 3 & 4 of the HTML elements specified	1 mark The website uses between 2 & 3 of the HTML elements specified.	0 marks The website uses less than 2 of the HTML elements specified.
CSS			3 marks The website uses simple selectors, id & class selectors.	2 marks The website uses two of the three different CSS selectors.	1 mark The website uses one of the three different CSS selectors.	0 marks The website does not use any CSS selectors.
Colour			3 marks Multiple colours were used effectively to enhance the usability of the website.	2 marks Some colours were used to enhance the website but more would have been appropriate	1 mark Some colours were used but they did not work well together.	0 marks No colours were used.
CSS Layout		4 marks The layout of the web page was appropriate for a mobile device & used the `` tag along with the margin, border, & padding properties	3 marks The website used `` tag but only included 2 properties of either: margin, border, or padding.	2 marks The website used `` tag but only included 1 property of either: margin, border, or padding.	1 mark The website is not using the `` tag.	0 marks The website did not used any CSS layout techniques.
About Page			3 marks The student provided a clear explanation of how their website fulfilled the user story. The student explained their colour selection, included an image of the developers of the website. The student provided an insightful reflection of the project & their efforts.	2 marks The student met three of the four criteria explained under the high column.	1 mark The student met two of the four criteria explained under the high column.	0 marks The student met less than two of the four criteria explained under the high column.

Screenshots of the pages: